

Clinical Teacher of the Year & Emergency Department Awards | 2016 - 2017

Published on Oct 03, 2017

On April 26th during our RCH EM Grand Rounds session, Dr. Jess Paul (R4), our Resident Chief, made the big reveal and presented on behalf of the group of residents, Dr. Justin Ahn with this year's Clinical Teacher of the Year Award.

Nominations also included:

- Dr. Doug Brown
- Dr. Aaron Davison
- Dr. Joseph Ip
- Dr. Nathan Lim

The Clinical Teacher of the Year Award is given to someone who has made an outstanding contribution to the emergency medicine residency program or the betterment of our EM residents. Important qualities include leadership skills, effective teaching, contagious enthusiasm, innovation and role modelling.

Here is the award presentation (starts at ~09:15 on the video).

We are so proud of all our Emergency Physicians and the great role models they are for our residents!
Thank You!

We're not done yet... This year we decided to do something a little different, special, and fun, to recognize many of the people in the Emergency Department. We are so lucky to be working along side of an amazing Emergency team. We hope you are all proud of the fantastic work you are doing!

This year, the Emergency Residents and Physicians nominated and voted for people in the department in a number of categories.

Congratulations to:

Consultant of the Year: Dr. George Medvedev

Nurse of the Year: Peter Burge

Allied Health Provider of the Year: Mathilda Vandermey

Lastly, congratulations to Dr. Anthony Bryson (R3) as the 2017 - 2018 Fraser Site Chief.

